Blood of dragon: A dragon disciple adds his dragon disciple levels to his sorcerer or other class levels when determining the powers gained from his bloodline. If the dragon disciple does not have levels of sorcerer, he instead gains bloodline powers of the draconic bloodline, using his dragon disciple level as his sorcerer level to determine the bonuses gained. He must choose a dragon type upon gaining his first level in this class and that type must be the same as his sorcerer type. This ability does not grant bonus spells to a sorcerer unless he possesses spell slots of an appropriate level. Such bonus spells are automatically granted if the sorcerer gains spell slots of the spell ' s level.

Dragon form(Su): A dragon disciple gains the ability to turn herself into small dragon and back again once per day. He can assume the form of a dragon of the same type as his bloodline, and it always has same appearance. This ability functions like the 3rd polymorph self spell with caster levels equals to dragon disciple's arcane caster level, except as noted here. The effect lasts for 1 hour per dragon disciple level, or until she changes back. Changing form (to dragon or back) is a standard action and doesn't provoke an attack of opportunity. Polymorph special ability's DC is based on Charisma.

At 2nd, 4th, 6th, 8th 10th level, treat the effect of dragon form as 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th or 8th polymorph self, as appropriate.

A dragon disciple can use this ability an additional time per day at 5th level and 9th level.

Spellcasting level: At the indicated levels, a dragon disciple gains new spells per day as if he had also gained a level in an arcane spellcasting class he belonged to before adding the prestige class. He does not, however, gain other benefits a character of that class would have gained, except for additional spells per day, spells known (if he is a spontaneous spellcaster), and an increased effective level of spellcasting. If a character had more than one arcane spellcasting class before becoming a dragon disciple, he must decide to which class he adds the new level for purposes of determining spells per day.

Ability boost As a dragon disciple gains levels in this prestige class, his gains enhancement bonus to ability score as noted on the table. テーブルには合計値を書いています

Bloodline Feat Upon reaching 2nd level, and every three levels thereafter, a dragon disciple receives one bonus feat, chosen from the draconic bloodline ' s bonus feat list.

Dragon Bite(Ex): At 2nd level, whenever the dragon disciple uses his bloodline to grow claws, he also gains a bite attack. This is a primary natural attack that deals 1d6 points of damage, plus dragon disciple ' s Strength modifier. Upon reaching 6th level, this bite also deals 1d6 points of energy damage. The type of damage dealt is determined by the dragon disciple ' s bloodline.

Breath Weapon (Su): At 3rd level, a dragon disciple gains the breath weapon bloodline power, even if his level does not yet grant that power. Once his level is high enough to grant this ability through the bloodline, the dragon disciple gains an additional use of his breath weapon each day. The type and shape of the breath weapon depends on the type of dragon selected by the dragon disciple, as detailed under the Draconic sorcerer bloodline description.

Blindsense (Ex) At 5th level, the dragon disciple gains blindsense with a range of 30 feet. At 10th level, the range of this ability increases to 60 feet.

Wings (Su): At 9th level, a dragon disciple gains the wings bloodline power, even if his level does not yet grant that power.
